The Borough Council, the legislative and policy making body for Millersville Borough, hereby establishes a Code of Conduct for the members of Council, as well as committees or associations with membership appointed by Council. The Code of Conduct defines a set of expectations to promote civility and professionalism in order to more effectively discharge the responsibilities entrusted to them by the Council and/or the citizens of the Borough of Millersville.

In keeping with the ideals of civility and professionalism, members are bound by the following rules:

- Members may not address one another directly. Comments are to be directed to the President or Chair.
- Members will not speak over one another during discussion or debate. The President or Chair reserves the right to limit discussion to those members that have been formally recognized.
- No member will be denied a reasonable time to have the floor during debate or discussion.
- Members are disallowed from engaging in debate or discussion once a single roll call vote has been cast.
- Debate and actions of Council in executive session are to be held in confidence among the members and those in attendance.
- Members will not use excessive or directed obscenities or hate speech.
- Members will comport themselves with respect and professionalism during public comment periods.

Members must recognize that the Code of Conduct is designed to permit civil discourse in the effectuation of the responsibilities of the offices held. As such, this Code should not be used to unduly limit productive discourse, silence dissenting opinions, or obfuscate the business of their bodies. It is the intent of the Code of Conduct only to support public engagement in a dignified and deliberate manner and ensure all individuals elected or appointed are provided with an opportunity to engage in the discourse.
